28/... Independent Expert on the enjoyment of human rights of persons with albinism

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations,

Guided also by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and recalling relevant international human rights treaties, including the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and the Convention on the Rights of the Child,

Reaffirming that everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person and that no one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment,

Recalling the universality, indivisibility, interdependence and interrelatedness of all human rights and fundamental freedoms and the need for persons with albinism to be guaranteed the full enjoyment of their rights and freedoms without discrimination,

Deeply concerned that in various parts of the world, persons with albinism continue to face barriers to their participation as equal members of society and violations and abuses of their human rights, and conscious that greater attention is needed to address these challenges,

Recalling Human Rights Council resolutions 5/1 on institution-building of the Council, and 5/2 on the Code of Conduct for Special Procedures Mandate Holders of the

* Non-member State of the Human Rights Council.

Council, of 18 June 2007, and stressing that the mandate holder shall discharge his or her duties in accordance with those resolutions and the annexes thereto,

Reaffirming the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action,

Recalling the rights of everyone to the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health and education, as enshrined in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and other relevant international human rights treaties,

Recalling also Human Rights Council resolutions 23/13 of 13 June 2013 on attacks and discrimination against persons with albinism, 24/33 of 27 September 2013 on technical cooperation for the prevention of attacks against persons with albinism and 26/10 of 26 June 2014 on International Albinism Awareness Day,

Recalling further General Assembly resolution 69/170 of 18 December 2014, by which the General Assembly decided to proclaim 13 June as International Albinism Awareness Day, with effect from 2015,

Taking note of the preliminary report on persons with albinism submitted by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to the Human Rights Council at its twenty-fourth session,[1]

Expressing grave concern at attacks and widespread violations against persons with albinism, including women and children, persons with disabilities and the elderly,

Welcoming all the initiatives and actions taken by all countries to address and combat all forms of violence and discrimination against persons with albinism,

Calling upon States to ensure accountability through the conduct of impartial, speedy and effective investigations into attacks against persons with albinism falling within their jurisdiction, and to bring to justice those responsible, as well as ensure that victims and family members have access to appropriate remedies,

Acknowledging the report of the Office of the High Commissioner,[1] on the call to strengthen international, regional and bilateral cooperation and to undertake activities aimed at supporting measures to prevent and combat discrimination and violence against persons with albinism and assist victims and their family members,

Acknowledging also the report of the Human Rights Council Advisory Committee on the study of the situation of human rights of persons living with albinism[2] and the recommendations therein, including to establish a special procedure mechanism,

1. Reaffirms the obligation of States to take all appropriate measures to eliminate violence and discrimination against persons with albinism, and to promote and protect their human rights and fundamental freedoms;

2. Decides to appoint, for a period of three years, an Independent Expert on the enjoyment of human rights of persons with albinism, with the following mandate:

(a) To engage in dialogue and consult with States and other relevant stakeholders, including United Nations agencies, programmes and funds, regional human rights mechanisms, national human rights institutions, the private sector and donors;

(b) To identify, exchange and promote good practices relating to the realization of the rights of persons with albinism and their participation as equal members of society;

[1] A/HRC/24/57.
[2] A/HRC/28/75.

(c) To promote and report on developments, challenges and obstacles towards the realization of the enjoyment of the human rights of persons with albinism in all regions of the world, and to make recommendations to the Human Rights Council in this regard;

(d) To gather, request, receive and exchange information and communications from and with States and other relevant sources, including persons with albinism and their representative organizations and other civil society organizations, on violations of the rights of persons with albinism;

(e) To conduct, facilitate and support the provision of advisory services, technical assistance, capacity-building and international cooperation in support of national efforts for the effective realization of the rights of persons with albinism and to prevent violence;

(f) To raise awareness on the rights of persons with albinism, and to combat stereotypes, prejudices and harmful traditional practices and beliefs that hinder their enjoyment of human rights and participation in society on an equal basis with others;

(g) To promote awareness of their positive contributions, and to inform persons with albinism about their rights;

(h) To report to the Human Rights Council, starting from its thirty-first session, and to the General Assembly;

3. Requests the Independent Expert to integrate a gender perspective throughout the work of the mandate and to pay specific attention to the challenges and needs of women and girls to address the multiple, intersecting and aggravated forms of discrimination faced by women and girls with albinism;

4. Calls upon all States to cooperate with the Independent Expert in the discharge of the mandate, including by providing all information requested, to give serious consideration to responding favourably to the requests of the Independent Expert to visit their countries and to consider implementing the recommendations made in the mandate holder's reports;

5. Requests the Secretary-General and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide the Independent Expert with all the human, technical and financial resources necessary for the effective fulfilment of the mandate.
